Confidentiality Declaration

I acknowledge that manuscripts submitted to the Kani Journal of Social Sciences for peer review are confidential scholarly documents.

By accepting a review assignment, I agree that:

1. I will keep the manuscript and all related editorial communications confidential.
2. I will not disclose, share, copy, reproduce, or distribute the manuscript or its contents to any unauthorised person.
3. I will not use unpublished information obtained through the review process for personal, professional, or research advantage.
4. I will not contact the authors about the manuscript unless authorised by the Editorial Office.
5. I will handle the manuscript and review materials responsibly and securely.
6. I will communicate any confidentiality or research-integrity concern to the Editorial Office through the appropriate confidential channel.

I understand that the confidentiality obligation applies throughout the review process and to unpublished material obtained through the review.
